Activity Name

Mid-Autumn Lantern Festival Celebration

Activity Objectives

- Through storytelling, children learned about the origin of the Mid-Autumn Festival
- By making snow-skin mooncakes and sharing traditional Mid-Autumn foods (such as mooncakes and seasonal fruits), children not only enhanced their motor coordination but also deepened their understanding of Chinese traditional festivals and customs
- Through the lantern parade and the parent-child lantern riddle guessing activity, children experienced the joyful atmosphere of the Mid-Autumn Festival

Activity Overview

During the "Mid-Autumn Festival Celebration," teachers introduced the story of "Chang'e Flying to the Moon" to the children. As a special highlight, Chang'e visited the school to enjoy the moon and carry lanterns with each class. Children hand-made snow-skin mooncakes and shared traditional Mid-Autumn delicacies such as mooncakes and seasonal fruits. After school, a parent-child lantern riddle guessing game was held. While joyfully celebrating the festival, children also gained a deeper appreciation for the traditions and customs of the Mid-Autumn Festival.
