Activity Name

January–February Birthday Celebration – “Children Inheriting Chinese Culture”

Activity Objectives

- Children learned about traditional Chinese physical art—lion dance—including its types, designs, and cultural meaning
- They enjoyed watching peers perform the lion dance confidently
- They explored and practiced handling lion dance props
- They followed teacher-led demonstrations to perform movements from Baduanjin (Eight Brocade Exercises)

Activity Overview

The January–February birthday party was themed “Children Passing On Chinese Culture.” In addition to celebrating birthdays, children engaged in hands-on activities featuring lion dance and Baduanjin. These experiences strengthened their physical endurance and patience, while helping them appreciate Chinese traditions and develop a stronger sense of cultural identity.
